

Sycamore trees on Church Common

After meeting the resident on site these where my findings.

There are 4 trees in total 2 of which are multi stem with a stem count of around 8 stems. As said in the email they would like to leave the logs for the community also stack the brash in the corner. The resident did say if the brash being stacked in the corner was an issue, they would look at the possibility of removing it from site.

Photos of trees

Photo of proposed area for stacking brush

